

Mum, please check it's me

There are lots of benefits to keeping your baby with you at all times but...

- If you and your baby are separated, please check your baby's ID band with the midwife each time your baby is returned to you.
- If your baby is receiving expressed breast milk feeds, please check the label on the bottle with the midwife before each feed.